

Tenaska's Information Technology Group delivers diverse technology solutions to help our employees and customers work smarter, faster and more effectively across multiple locations. We design, build and support state-of-the-art solutions, including advanced data warehousing and line-of-business applications on a secure, high-performing, hybrid architecture. Our business-critical systems provide key analytics and drive automation empowering one of the country's largest energy companies to generate, deliver and trade energy across North America.

Areas We Support

- Trading
- Accounting
- Scheduling
- Credit
- Operations
- Remote Offices

Value To Business

Reliability

Making security and availability our priority

Efficiency

Enabling employees to focus on valuable tasks

Analytics

Identifying risk and opportunities