

Proven energy management expertise

Tenaska Power Services (TPS) delivers energy management, trading and optimization services across North American power markets. Backed by advanced tools and a team of experienced professionals, we help customers navigate complexity and maximize value.

Smart tools. Experienced people. Better outcomes.

Our people are at the center of every solution, combining deep market knowledge with proprietary platforms, real-time access and 24/7 operational support to deliver reliable, data-driven results across the energy lifecycle.

TENASKA[®] POWER SERVICES Co.

29 YEARS

providing energy management services

Active

in all U.S. power markets

24/7

operations, trading and energy management

42%

TPS-managed capacity is renewable generation

18,500+ MW

of wholesale and retail load managed 650+

enabling agreements with counterparties

TenaskaPowerServices.com

TPS areas of operation

From utilities and municipalities to industrial users and independent generators, Tenaska Power Services operates across every major U.S. power market. Our experience and reach across the country mean we bring the insight and scale to manage your business needs more effectively, wherever you operate.

