

Kristen J. Gould

Executive Vice President, Origination North America

Kristen J. Gould is the Executive Vice President of Origination North America for Tenaska Marketing Ventures (TMV), the natural gas marketing affiliate of Tenaska. Ms. Gould heads a team of originators who focus on customers in Canada and the Western U.S.

TMV has customers throughout the United States and Canada. TMV is ranked by Platts Gas Daily as one of the top five natural gas marketers in North America and is consistently rated No. 1 in gas pipeline capacity trading by CapacityCenter.com. TMV has also been ranked in the top 5 in customer value and loyalty by Mastio & Company since 2007.

Ms. Gould has over 23 years of experience working for Tenaska and 28 years of experience in the natural gas industry. She began her career working for a Western Canadian producer and shifted to the marketing side of the business when joining TMV in 2000. Ms. Gould has been instrumental in building TMV's customer base across Canada and growing and leading an experienced team of traders and originators in Calgary and Vancouver.

Ms. Gould earned a Bachelor of Business Administration from Bishops University in Quebec.
